The Wheeler Slave Case of Patladelphia-

The United States District Court was densely crewied, his meeting, by praces anytout to hear the decision of Judge Kane on the metion to commit if: Passence Wildiamson for contemp of court, and for perjury, in haking an alieged false return to the writ of habes ergus requiring him to produce the bodies of the slaves of Delouel Wheeler. DECISION OF JUDGE KAME.

The United States A ex rel. Wheeler vs. Passmore Williampers—Sur. Hub as Corpus, July 27, 1885.—Col. John H. Wheeler, of North Carolina, the United States Minister to Nicaragua, was on board a steembeat, at one of the Deis ware whereas on his way from Washington, to embark at New York for his post of duty. Three slaves, beionging to him, were sitting at his side on the unper cele.

clayes, belonging to him, were sitting at his side on the upper deck.

Just as the last signal belt was ringing, Pasamore Williamson came up to the party—declared to the slaves that they were free—and forcibly pressing Mr. Whoeler saide, orged them to so shore. He was followed by somedared or twenty negroes, who by muscular strength carried the slaves to the adjoining pier—two of the slaves, at least, if not all three of them, struggling to release tomeslyes, and protesting their wish to remain with their master; two of the nagro mob in the mean time grasping Co. Whoeler by the collar, and threatoning to eat his threat it be made any resistance.

The narrae were better along to a haskery coach that was in waiting, and were conveyed to some place of concalinated. Mr. Williamson following and urging forward the mos, and giving his name and address to Colocal Wheeler, with the declara ion that he held himself responsible towards him or whatever might be his legal rights but familing no personally active part in the abduction sixter he made left no deck.

Allowed a writ of babeas corpus at the instance of Wheese, with the declaration that he hold himself responsible towards him or whatever might be his legal rights but haling no personally active part in the abduction siter he had be the deca.

Allowed a writ of habe as corpus at the instance of colored wheeler, and subsequently an alias; and to this lest him Williamsen made return that the persons names in the writ, "nor either of them, are not now, nor was at the time or resuling of the writ, or the original writ, or at any other time, in the custody, power, or peace-size of the respondent, nor by him confined or restrained wherefore he cannot have the bodies." Acc.

At the nearing I allowed the relator to traverse this return, and several wincesses, who were asked by him, testified to the facts as I have recited them. The District authority, upon it a state of facts, moved for Williamsen's commitment, first, for contempt in making a false return; selved, to take his trial for perjury.

Mr. Williamson then took the stand to purge himself of century. He obtained he facts substantially as in proof before; made it plans that he had been an afriest of the project, and had given it his confiderate sanction throughout. He receives his denial that he had control at any time ever the movements of the slaves, or know their present whereacturs. Such is the case, as it was before me on the keareng.

I can hold look upon these toturn otherwise than as illusery—in legal phrase, as evasive, if not false. It sets out that the alleged presents are not now, and have not been since the issue of the habeas corpus, in the custody, power or peacession of the respondent; and is so far, it uses legally appropriate language for such a return. But it goes further, and by added words, gives an interpretation to that language onesatially return to the respondent himself, establish the fact by post control the so control. He was the person discount at and reprevalently intringed excession. He was the post counce at the sor of the control of the land. It would be utilize and only the wind

That a the retributive law of all concerted crimes; and its segment applies with peculiar force to twose cases in, which radress and prevention of wring are sought through the writ of habeds corpus. This, the great remedial piccosa by which fleerly is a walicated and restored, tolerates no language in the response which it cells for that can mask a anterfuge. The dearest interest of this, personal safety, domestic peace, social repose, ad that man can value, or that is worth living for, are more in this principle. The institutions of social worth the man can value, or that is worth living for, are more in this principle. The institutions of social wood flore more than half their value, and courts of habets coopus could not compet the trath, tall, direct and unequiv.cal, in answer to its mandate.

It will not do to say to the man whose w foor whose deaghts of her to the my pedaction. I do not detain her, masmod as the assent was made by the hand of my authorizants, and I have forborne to ask where they prepose consumating the wrong.

It at lear, then, is it seems to me, that is legal acceptance the purities when this writ called on Mr. Williamson to produce, were at one time within his power and control; and his answer, so far as it relates to his power over them, hakes no distinction between that time asset the present. I cannot give a different interpretation to his language from that which he has practically given hismost, and cannot regard him as deaying his power over the princhers now, when he does not awar that he has lost the power which he has falled, to answer that he has lost the power with his her has falled, to answer that contains a summary of the special exigence has the moral propelety of mis act, as i to which all his own rights reposed to the count, to excuse even a doubt of my duty or an after the count of the protection of the rights of others from that same too accept a charge of the count of the pro receasive and while passing from one State to another upon the navigable waters of the United States—a point or which my first impressions are adverse to the argument—in have to say

1. That I snow of no atatute, either of the United States or of Pennylvania, or of New Jersey, the only other State that has a qualified jurisdiction over this part of the Deisware, that anthorizes the forcible abdustion of exp person or anything whatsover, without claim of property, unless in sid of legal process.

2. That I know of no a atute of Pennylvania, which allests to tweat the rights of property of a citizen of that State, because he has found it needful or convenient to pass through the territory of Pennylvania.

3. That I am not aware of any such statate, if such a one were abown could be recognized as valid in a court of the United States.

4. That it seems to me altogether unimportant whether they were slaves or not. It would be the modery of philaothicopy to assert, that, because men had become free, they my fittle therefore, be forcibly adducted.

I have eald nothing of the motives by which the re-they were shares or not. It would be the mockety of philosothicory to assort, that, because men had become free, they mgbt, therefore, be forcibly adducted.

I have eaid nothing of the motives by which the respondent has been governed. I have nothing to do with them they may give him support and camfort before as undentity higher tribuns! I do not impugn them here. Now do I allude, on the other hand, to those special claims on our hospitable courtesy, which the diplomatic haracter of Mr. Wheeler might seem to assort for him. I am doubtful whether the acts of Congress give to him and his retinue and his property that protectics as a representative of the sovereignty of the Custed States, which they concede to all sovereignity of the Custed States, which they concede to all sovereignites besides. Whether, under the general law of nations, he could not ask a broader privilege than some judicial processed might seem to admit, is not necessarily involved on the cause before me.

It is owned, hat I find, as the case stands now, the plain set smple grounds of adjudication, that Mr. Williamson has not returned truthfully and fully to the writ of laces corpus He must, therefore, stant committed for a contempt of the legal process of the court. As to his second working of the District Attorney, that which looks to a committed for perjury, I withhold an expression of opinion is regard to it. It is unsecessary, because Mr. Williamson, the respondent, be committed to the cause by the grand Jury, and appendent that there may be doubts whether the ambient of the Court in relusing to answer to the cause by of the marshal without ball or main prize, as fer a contempt of the Court in relusing to answer to the cause of the relation of Mr. Wheeler.

After Judge Kane had concluded, District Attorney Yandyke moved that a commitment under the seal of its Court be legal of the court. A committed to the court of his active to the same had concluded to the marshal. Mr. Gight sold has a sold he desired to make a motion that the feature o

Sr. Permaneumo, June 30, 1866.

The principal topic in political circles here is the lase expression of the government of Great and Little Russia at 8t. Petersburg and at Moscow by the recent a rests. These rigorous measures are attributed to the discovery of a conspiracy set on foot by members of the slave party, and also attributed to the resuscitation of the rash attempt of 1825, at the advent of the Emperor Nicholas, which shows that, oven after the lapse of thirty years, the passions of parties and politics have not recovered from their irritation.

It is positively stated that among the persons arrested are four Generals, in active service, two Professors of the University of Moscow, and one Professor of the University of Kiew. It is also universally reported that the veteran General Yermo-loff is strictly watched. This old soldier, after remaining a long time in exile, in consequence of a coldness between the late Emperor and himself, was recalled to St. Petersburg by Alexarder II., and nominated to the chief command of the mobile and nominated to the chief command of the mobile militia. This appointment was resigned, because the old General did not desire to serve under the German Generals, G abbe, Berg, and Siewers, whe were given the chief command of the militia in Finard and Courland.

Among other persons said to have been arrested is the Prince G. W*y, son of an ansient minister, and well known for his liberal tendencies.

Valcus opinions are affost relative to the causes of the discovery and origin of the conspiracy. It is accredited generally to the extraordinary rigor of the government in the matter of refusing pasports to those Russians who spend the summer abroad, and the excessive care of the cansors, who, without motives, refuse to allow the publication of works which certainly might have been author zed under the Emperor Nicholas himself.

The Last of the Fourieritees Phalanx—Going, Going, Going [[From the N Y. Tribune, July 27]

Our advertising columns to day contain an armouncement that the domain of the association known as the North American Phalanx, in Monmouth county, N. J., will be sold at auction on the 33 of O. tobor rext. The estate consists of nearly seven hundred acres of land, all in excellent condition, and with every sivantage for profitable farming or gardening. It will be sold either in a mass or in parcels, and there is no place in the vicinity of New York better worthy the attention of persons looking for farms. For a great agricultural school it would be utrivalled.

The sale of this domain and the breaking up of the phalanx will be generally regarded as in some air tickeling that socialist movement which commenced in this country come fifteen years ago, and which in the various phases of its progress has certainly exhibited many noble instances of devotion to idea the most lofty and purposes the most generus. In the public mind this movement has been connoted with what is called Fourierism, but the truth is that while the inculcations of Fourier have had mure or less induces on the opinions of to see appaged in the various practical experiments, still we know of no incividual among them who has adopted all of the doctrices, time or fantself, high or low, which compase his theory, nor of any bid of in dividuals who have attempted to put them or any part of them in practice to any consilerable extent. At yet there has never been an experiment of Fourier's secial system either in this country or elsewhere; and infeed the failure of the various cash let men's fast have been undertaken in other cash let the search as under the any interest of the publications of which har. Albert Bribbare was "the sould fail to every one of his books." The souldists movement, which the appractical subtribution of the various processes of the processes of the public of the search with the contribution of the various cash is the search with the pu tice, whose establishment is now going for ward in Texas under the superintenden; of Mr. Victor Consideran; and we trust the event may prove that it presences them all.

The great practical difficulty in these experiments has been to secure in the members a due sense of personal responsibility, and a due vigilance for the common good. The immediate spur of self interest and the product of the common good. The immediate spur of self interest and the needful amount of food and clothing he by tolerably certain, the mass of the members have not been impelied to work so diligently or to save so carefully as if everything depended on the toil and economy of the day, or as if an employer were overlooking them. Thus a shiftless and careless way of going on has too often grown up in the association, and while a few have berne more than their fair share of the till and care, others have borne less. This defect might, perbaps, be obvisted by a more stringent system of compensating the services of the parties; but at the same time the truth is indisputable that in an association pinching economy can less easily be practised than infectated iffe. Keep prople apart, and they can bear privation and want, if not with factility, without complaint; but bring them into genial ard natural relations, and what before was luxury becomes simply necessary. They require to be better fed and better housed, and to have much more leisure for the social pleasures and opportunities of culture put within their reach. Between association and poverty there is a natural contradiction; and we suspect that the former can never be completely realised until she progress of science, invention and diedstry has endowed society with an abundance of wealth of every kind such as we now searcely imagine.

That so lofty and satisfying an ideal of social life will one day be fully attained, it would be impossible to denot. It leded, it is intimated in all traditions and foreteld in all prephecies. It is the dictate of common sense, the essence of democracy a

UPION COUNTY, L. L.—PROTTING.

A trotting match for $2,000, mile beats, best three in five, to wages, between br. g. Major Regers and s. g. Hard Road, came off on Thursday afternoon. The horses belong to Boston, and en account of the breaking up of the Cambridge Course, they came on here to accertain which would take down the stake.

Major Regers is a fine large golding, with a square open eighteen to nineteen feet strate, and a trotter all over, and seemed to have little to do in besting Hard Road, with his hop-akip and-jump gait. Both across appeared too high in fiesh. The betting was very oven, inclining to Hard Road.

First Heat.—Getting the word, they went around the turn side and side, Hard Road with the pole. Major Rogers outfooted the little horse, and showed in front at the quarter pole in forty seconds; and going steady, was half a largth in advance at the half mile pole, in 1:20. The large horse—(the contrast in size was very great)—then drew way from the little fellow, and came home a winner by two or three lengths, in 2:38.

Second Heat.—This was a counterpart of the previous one histor Regers led to the quarter in forty secondato the half in 1:19, and again made the heat in 2:38.

Third Heat.—Warren Feabody look the place of Daniels behind Hard Road, but could no make him win. Major Rogers was too much for him. Time to quarter, forty seconds; the half, 1:20; and of the heat, 2:41. The following is a summary:—

BROADWAY THEATHE—This evening is announced as the last of the successful engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Williams. Indeed, it has been so successful, that at this warm sease no the year nothing of comparison can be made for many years previously, which has put so much mency in the treasury of the Broadway theatre, proving conclusively that Mr. and Mrs. Williams are great favorites. They appear to night in the "Fairy Circle," "In and Out of Place," the "livish Tutor," and the "livish Thrush." No doubt the last night of their spearance will be henored with a large assemblage of their friends and admirers.

NIBLO'S GARDEN.—Mr. Borton, whose theatrical engagement at Niblo's has, as usual, been very successful, appears to hight in the domestic drams of the "Dodder," as Imothy, supported by a very good company. Wherever Button appears he must always attract, having established a character for himself as one of the best comedians in the country. He also appears in the "Mandering Minstrel," as Jim Bage. Monday evening his Louiss Fyne will appear in opers.

BOWHEY THATRE.—The selections make for this evening by Mr. Welforon are such an cannot fall to please his patroes. He works hard to give the best criertainments that can be found at the eastern side of the city; therefore, he deserves public favor. The beautiful piece of "William Tell," with Mr. Johnston as Tell, will comments.

Wood's Minneyer.—A programme of great variety is

Mr. S. W. Glenn, the Dutch comedian, commences are engagement for six nights at the Bowery theatre, on Moneny evening next. This will be a card for the mana-ger, as Glenn is a great favorite.

engagement for six hights at the Bowery theatre, on Mone by evening next. This will be a card for the manager, as Gleen is a great favorite.

The Yellow Fever at Gosport.—The Portsmouth Transcript of Tueeday evening states that up to that time eighteen cases of yellow fever had occurred at Gosport, eight of which proved fatal. It says:—The disease is principally confined to Gosport, there being only a few cases in other parts of the town, and they originated in Gosport. The spread of the disease has been traced to the steamer Ben Franklin, Captain Byarn, from St. Thomas. The vessel strived on the 7th June, and had remained at quarantise twelve days, and no sickness having occurred in that time, she was permitted to come into the harbor on the 19th, upon the condition that her hold was not to be broken out. When the health officerfirst visited her at quarantine, he was informed by the captain that there had been two draths, but they had resulted from the heart disease, and exhaustion. It was this, however, that led to the precentionary measure above stated. The Heraid then asys:—Having contracted with a party in Gesport to have her work done there, she was taken up to Page and Allen's ship yard, (next to the navy yard wall). There she remained nineteen days, during which period it is stated the captain violated his engagement in having the hold broken out. On the 5th of July, and the Town Councils of Portsmouth immediately convened and issued an order to send her was taken sick, and his disease proved to be yellow fever. This was the first case in twenty-sight days after the steamer's arrival. He died on the 8th of July, and the Town Councils of Portsmouth immediately convened and issued an order to send her back to quarantine, which was done forth with, and she now remains there. Following this case were a number of others, smong whom were six of the hards belonging to the steamer, who were sent to the Marine Hospital, two of whom have died. In Gesport six persons have died in all. The Councils of Portsmouth, w
